LIFE CARE PLANNING – A CASE STUDY

Liz Holakiewicz graduated from Biola College in 1981 with honors from the BSN program. Her professional experience includes ICU/CCU, home health nursing, and case management. In 1991, Liz started her own business in case management and life care planning. Her practice now is predominantly in the area of Life Care Planning and this presentation will focus on one of her recent cases. The attorney and in-house LNC who handled this case will be co-presenters with her. The methodology used in the development of a life care plan and available certifications will also be discussed.
